ARTICLE 5 — USE OF THE PROPERTY

- 5.1 The Tenant shall use the property only for the residential purpose stated in this Agreement and shall not use it for any commercial, industrial, storage, worship or illegal purpose.
- 5.2 The Tenant shall not cause nuisance or disturbance to neighbours and shall comply with the building rules in Annex D and with applicable laws and municipal regulations.

- 7.2 The Tenant shall carry out routine day-to-day maintenance, including replacing bulbs, cleaning air-conditioner filters, minor tap and fixture repairs, and keeping drains clear.
- 7.3 The Tenant shall repair at his own cost any damage caused by misuse, negligence or the act of his family, guests or visitors.
- 7.4 The Tenant shall report any defect or damage to the Landlord promptly and shall allow access for repairs on reasonable notice.

- 8.1 The Tenant shall not make structural changes, additions, painting in non-neutral colours, or fixtures affecting the walls, ceilings, plumbing or electrical system without the Landlord's prior written consent.
- 8.2 Any approved alteration remains the property of the Landlord unless agreed otherwise in writing, and the Landlord may require the property to be restored at the Tenant's cost.

ARTICLE 9 — SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENT

- 9.1 The Tenant may not sublet all or part of the property, or assign this Agreement, to a third party unless the Landlord has given prior written approval.

ARTICLE 10 — REGISTRATION AND TAX

- 10.1 The Landlord is bound to register this Agreement with the competent municipality and pay the fixed registration tax within one month of signing. Registration fee and tax as levied by the municipality (currently calculated on monthly rent × contract period) shall be borne by the Landlord unless the parties agree in writing that the Tenant will register it.
- 10.2 Failure to register within the legal period may render the Agreement unenforceable in court and expose the responsible party to penalties. If the Landlord fails to register within one month, the Tenant may register it and recover the cost.
- 10.3 The municipality tax is a public debt and may be collected by administrative means as provided in Royal Decree No. 6/89.

ARTICLE 11 — HANDOVER AND CONDITION

- 11.2 Defects noted at handover are recorded in Annex B. Defects not noted within seven (7) days of handover are presumed to have arisen during the tenancy.

ARTICLE 12 — INSURANCE AND LIABILITY

- 12.1 The Landlord insures the building structure. The Tenant is responsible for insuring his own belongings and is solely liable for loss of or damage to them.
- 12.2 The Landlord is not liable for injury or loss suffered by the Tenant or his visitors in the property, except where caused by the Landlord's proven negligence or breach.

ARTICLE 13 — ACCESS AND INSPECTION

13.1 The Landlord may enter the property, on at least 24 hours' notice and at reasonable times, to inspect its condition, carry out repairs, or show it to prospective tenants or buyers in the last two months of the term. In an emergency, access may be taken without notice.

ARTICLE 14 — DEFAULT, RESCISSION AND EVICTION

- 14.1 Either party may rescind this Agreement if the other party fails to fulfil his obligations under it, after written notice to remedy the breach.
- 14.2 If the Tenant fails to pay rent when due and remains in default for at least fifteen (15) days after the due date, the Landlord may apply to the competent court for rescission and eviction. Termination for non-payment is not automatic and requires a court judgment.
- 14.3 Grounds for the Landlord to seek eviction include: use of the property for an unlawful or unagreed purpose, subletting without approval, causing serious damage, or failure to pay any sum due after notice.
- 14.4 The Tenant may not terminate this Agreement before its expiry except by agreement with the Landlord or on the grounds allowed by law; where an early departure is agreed, the Tenant remains liable for rent up to the agreed handover date.

ARTICLE 15 — RETURN OF THE PROPERTY

- 15.1 On expiry or termination the Tenant shall vacate and return the property on the agreed date, in the same condition as received, fair wear and tear excepted, together with all keys, access cards and remotes.
- 15.2 Holding over without the Landlord's consent does not renew the Agreement; the Tenant shall pay rent at the last agreed rate pro rata for the period of occupation and compensate any loss caused by the delay.

- 16.1 Notices under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered by hand against a signature, by registered post, or by email or WhatsApp to the addresses and numbers stated in this Agreement. A notice is deemed received on delivery or, if sent by email or message, on the next working day.
